PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Railroads of the United States have arranged to observe the period from Monday, June 10, to Saturday, June 15, as "Railroad Week" in all states of the Union; and

WHEREAS, the Railroads serving the State of South Dakota contribute in their large tax payments to the support of our Institutions and the maintenance of our state and local governments; are large employers of labor; have assisted distressed areas in times of crop disaster; have rendered the public important transportation service, and have thus played a vital part in the lives of our people:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tom Berry, Governor of the State of South Dakota, request our citizens to join in the observation of Railroad Week during the period from Monday, June 10, to Saturday, June 15, 1935.

DONE AT PIERRE, SOUTH DAKOTA, this 27th day of May, 1935.

Tom Berry
Tom Berry, Governor
